Appendix 2. Screen shot of an electronic medication administration record and mismatched medication label. The medication administration record reflects standard presentation at the time of the study, whereas the medication label incorporates the designation “LONG” (for “long-acting”).

Copyright ©2011 Canadian Society of Hospital Pharmacists